REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

1. Prof. Dr. G. Aeckerlein is head of the radium institute at Oberschlema. A Soviet woman geologist, (fnu) Besova, is also working there.
2. The Freiberg Bergakademie is working in close cooperation with the Oberschlema institute and is attempting to locate specialists in measurement technology, particularly in Geiger counters. Professor Meissner of the Bergakademie recently wrote to a friend that "the Bergakademie has recently finished with considerable success several scientific tasks entrusted to it by the Russians."
3. Prof. Schuhmacher, former chief of the Bergakademie's geological institute, went to Yugoslavia in either May or June 1947 and has written that he is well satisfied with conditions there. In source's opinion, Schuhmacher is one of the few German scientists able to pronounce judgment on the percentage of pitchblende ore available among the ores of the Oberschlema region.
